Dear Prospective ECD LEVEL 4 Student,

Thank you for enquiring about our accredited qualifications.

What follows is a basic breakdown of the EduExperts ECD L4 training course

ECD Level 4 - SAQA ID 58761, is an ETDP SETA and SAQA accredited training course for prospective Pre- School Teachers, Day Mothers and Teaching Assistants, facilitating children aged 0 to 4 years. This is the preferred first step towards attaining a comprehensive ECD qualification. A period of approximately 13 months is sufficient to complete the Introductory Module plus 13 other modules – Unit Standards – consisting of 3 components:

1. A once-a-month compulsory online facilitating session. (A second support session is optional)
2. Practical contact sessions with preschool learners. (Evidence to be submitted online)
3. Assessment of theoretical and practical assignments determining competency.

You will be required to upload all completed theoretical and practical assignments observing submission dates, strictly monitored by your Facilitator and Assessor – A period of one month serves as the time frame provided to complete and upload assignments of the facilitated Module to the student portal.

The submission of a comprehensive e-Portfolio of Evidence (e-POE) is required at the conclusion of the course for Final External Assessment, Moderation and ETDP SETA Verification. When confirmed competent you will receive the following sequentially:

- A completion certificate from EduExperts.
- A Statement of Results from ETDP SETA - (SOR)
- A SAQA accredited certificate to be awarded to you. There will be a formal Online Graduation Ceremony. (Ceremony details to be communicated timeously) The SAQA certificate will enable your partial registration with SACE (South African Council for Educators), as a certified Early Childhood Development Practitioner.
- Your L4 Certificate through EduExperts will afford you 285 Credits. (Minimum requirement 140 Credits)

Answers to Frequently Asked Questions:

1. The minimum age for enrolling for ECD L4 is 18 years.
2. A mandatory Comprehension Test will determine your English competency. Success in this Comprehension Test will affirm your acceptance into the ECD L4 course.
3. The SAQA certificate will give you an ECD qualification equivalent to an NQF level 4 Matric.
4. Foreigners from SADEC Countries need a copy of their passport and proof of their highest qualification to be admitted.
